Embrace Sales Technology and Thrive in 2021

Do you have an accurate and complete understanding of your sales teams activities in the market place? Are you reaching the right referral sources with the right message? As we move beyond the Pandemic of 2020, we can choose to embrace technology for Sales or ignore it. We are living in a SMART Sales environment and many are still using Flip Phone Technology to manage and grow our sales efforts. There are opportunities for us to increase referrals, target top accounts, and create a strong engaging messaging through the adoption and execution of a CRM and Market Data. We will not just explore this opportunity, but provide case information that proves the adoption of these Sales Technologies WORK. Learning Objectives: Review the Flip Phone Sales Approach to Sales Accountability and Market Penetration AND Uncover the CRM Technology available and how this transforms our Sales Team.

Respiratory GROWTH Opportunities in a Post Pandemic Environment

Developing a Post COVID-19 strategy is critical. The referral market place has gone through tremendous changes and we must adapt our Sales efforts to engage and equip them with best-in-class options for Home Sleep Testing, Patient Compliance, and Resupply. We will explore the industry leading options for your HME Business and how the adoption of these can change your Respiratory Business. We will also provide a clear Sales Process full of information and application on how to reach, engage, and gain referrals. In a me-too world of HST, Compliance, and Resupply, how will you differentiate your business and gain market share?

Learning Objectives: Review the current Referral Community landscape for HST, Patient Compliance and Resupply; How to use home sleep testing to grow and generate increased CPAP revenue; What to expect from an IDTF and how to market this to the referral community; How to increase patient referrals by becoming your referral's partner in patient care while becoming more patient centric to increase patient revenue, extending the patient's life-cycle, and patient retention; and How to develop and execute a Sales and Marketing Strategy to the Referral and Consumer Community
